MASTER builder

Profile

Master Builder is the official publication of Master Builders Queensland—the peak industry association representing building and construction since 1882.

With more than 9,700 members and nine offices throughout the state, Master Builders Queensland’s coverage and regional footprint is unmatched by any other industry organisation.

Master Builders Queensland membership covers builders, trade contractors, consultants, manufacturers, and apprentices from all sectors of the industry. Collectively, these members spend billions on residential, commercial, and industrial construction throughout Queensland.

Master Builder gives you the ability to promote your business alongside the trusted Master Builders Queensland brand to maximise your exposure to a wide range of industry professionals, home builders and home renovators.

Whether you’re promoting a new product or a branding campaign, Master Builder has print and digital advertising opportunities that provide cost-effective marketing solutions and can put your product or service in front of the eyes of key decision-makers.

Master Builders Queensland membership covers builders, trade contractors, consultants, manufacturers, and apprentices from all sectors of the industry.

Four times a year

Master Builder is regarded as a must-read publication for anyone in Queensland's housing and construction industry. It features the latest industry news, legislative changes, business advice, informative and entertaining profiles on members and their projects, and the latest products and services hitting the market.

Once a year, special edition

Master Builders Queensland's Housing & Construction Awards Showcase magazine celebrates members demonstrating building innovation and quality craftsmanship, promoting and showcasing excellence in Queensland's housing and construction industry. From apprentices to trade contractors and family businesses to the biggest names in the industry, the awards and magazine celebrates the full spectrum of projects in Queensland housing and construction.

Monthly - every third or fourth Tuesday

Building Insights is Master Builders Queensland's e-newsletter, sent to all Master Builders Queensland members with a valid email address. Each edition focuses on the latest news and issues affecting members as well as forecasted information, industry analysis and a summary of upcoming training courses and events.
